

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING CERTIFICATION OF COMMERCIAL TIME LIMITS AND WEBSITE ADDRESSES

This is to certify compliance with the requirements of the Children's Television Act of 1990, as implemented by the FCC:

Commercial Time Limits Certification

Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN) is a not-for-profit church corporation. None of the Children's television programming aired by TBN contained commercial advertisements or spots that exceeded the Commission's weekend 10.5 minutes per hour limit, or its weekday 12 minutes per hour limit.

Internet Website Certification

All of the website addresses included in the Children's television programming directed to children ages 12 and under aired by TBN met the following requirements:

- (1) the website(s) offered a substantial amount of bona fide program-related or other noncommercial content;
- (2) the website(s) is not primarily intended for commercial purposes, including either e-commerce or advertising;
- (3) the website's home page and other menu pages are clearly labeled to distinguish the noncommercial from the commercial sections; and
- (4) the page of the website to which viewers are directed by the website address is not used for e-commerce, advertising, or other commercial purposes (e.g., contains no links labeled "store" and no links to another page with commercial material).

The FCC permits websites meeting the above requirements to sell or advertise products associated with the related television program. However, the FCC prohibits the display of website addresses when the site uses characters from the program to sell products or services. The Children's television programs directed to children ages 12 and under aired by TBN met these requirements.
